

AQW 548/09

Dominic Bradley has asked:

To ask the Minister for Education for a breakdown by school of the £217m backlog of maintenance work to be carried out on schools, highlighting work that has health and safety implications.

The £217m high priority maintenance backlog figure was provided by the Education and Library Boards and related to their whole estate. The total maintenance backlog for nursery, primary and post-primary schools for which Boards have maintenance responsibility is £197m. The Boards have provided the figures for all the controlled and maintained schools, and given a breakdown of the figures, highlighting work that has health and safety implications. The Boards monitor estimated maintenance costs for the main school buildings and the school meals accommodation separately which is why they are presented that way in the tables.

Details are given in the table below.
